Don't You Believe it.

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by all dealers.—adv.

—The attention of the readers is directed to the advertisement of W. F. Schade's 5th Annual Sale, which appears in another column. Mr. Schade is well and favorably known to stockmen, having a widespread reputation, as for twenty-four years he has been handling jacks and Jennets, and his annual sales have become a fixed feature, which draw buyers from many States. In this sale will be offered 25 Jacks and Jennets, most of the latter breed to a son of Orphan Boy No. 686, grand champion at the St. Louis World's Fair. Anyone interested in jacks or Jennets will do well to write Mr. Schade for a free catalogue and attend the sale.

Question of County

Farm Adviser.

Considerable agitation has been going on within the community of late relative to securing a county Farm Adviser. The Times wishes to place itself in harmony with the movement, and to say further that it will lend whatever influence it may have to just such an end, believing that in the securing of a man competent to make suggestions to the farmers of the community the resources of the county will much more largely be developed.
